Queen’s College uniform regulations 2016-17

These uniform regulations apply to Years 7, 8 and 9. Older girls have a dress code which is set out in a separate document.

GENERAL

- Girls are expected to identify themselves with the College and its ethos by wearing their uniforms neatly and without adaptations.
- Jewellery: a simple chain necklace with a small pendant may be worn, as may stud ear-rings. These may have to be removed for some activities. No rings or bracelets are allowed.
- No make-up is allowed, and no coloured nail varnish.
- Long hair must be tied back, and any hair accessories must be navy blue. No unnatural-looking hair colouring is permitted, nor should any part of the head be shaved.
- Piercings are not allowed, other than a single piercing in each ear lobe.
- Any girl who wishes to cover her head for religious reasons must use a plain, navy blue headscarf.

FOOTWEAR

- For school, girls should wear flat, black shoes in a traditional ‘school shoe’ style (no suede, no patent, no sandals, no boots).
- For sport, a supportive pair of plain white trainers is required. Coloured laces are not permitted, and fashion plimsolls (such as Converse) are not suitable.

OUTERWEAR

Girls must own at least one of the three regulation coats listed here. Non-regulation coats and jackets are not allowed. The three permitted coats are available only from www.schoolblazer.com.

- Queen’s College navy overcoat
- Queen’s College navy fitted jacket
- Queen’s College navy quilted jacket (showerproof)

Umbrella

The only umbrella permitted with school uniform is the official Queen’s College umbrella, which is available from the College.
UNIFORM

All items must be bought on-line from www.schoolblazer.com. Everything should be named, and a free name-taping service is available through Schoolblazer.
